UI GreenMetric World University Rankings 2020 : Wageningen University and Research, Netherlands – The World's Most Sustainable University

Universitas Indonesia (UI) released the result of UI GreenMetric World University Rankings 2020 on December 7th, 2020. The rankings were announced online by the Chairperson of UI GreenMetric, Prof. Dr. Riri Fitri Sari, M.Sc., MM. The ceremony was also attended by Prof. Bambang Brodjonegoro, the Minister for Research and Technology/Chairman of National Agency for Research and Innovation,The Republic of Indonesia, Prof. Ir. Nizam, M.Sc., DIC, Ph.D, The Director General of Higher Education of the Ministry of Education and Culture of the Republic of Indonesia, and Prof. Ari Kuncoro, SE, MA, Ph.D, Rector of Universitas Indonesia.

UI GreenMetric World University Rankings is the first and only university rankings in the world that measure each participating university's commitment in developing an 'environmentally friendly' university. The rankings look at 6 indicators of each university (setting and infrastructure, energy and climate change, waste, water, transportation and education). There is a significant increase in UI GreenMetric participants compared to last year, where there are 912 universities from 84 countries, or an increase of 132 participating universities. Three new countries have just joined in this year, such as Kuwait, Lithuania and Belarus

Wageningen University & Research ranks the first in the top 10 World ranking, followed by the University of Oxford, Nottingham University, Nottingham Trent University, University of California, Davis, Umwelt-Campus Birkenfeld, University of Groningen, Leiden University, University College Cork and Universita di Bologna. In Indonesian ranking Universitas Indonesia ranks the first in the country and 27th in the world.

To facilitate collaborations among participating universities, UI GreenMetric World University Rankings Network (UIGWURN) was established in 2017. To date, it already has 35 National Coordinators from 30 countries in Asia, Europe, Africa, North America, and Latin America. Many universities have successfully conducted International, Regional, and National Workshops on UI GreenMetric in their respective countries and encourage more universities in their respective countries to join this global network. They include Inseec U. (France), King Abdulaziz University (Saudi Arabia), Nottingham University (United Kingdom), Mahidol University (Thailand), Universitas Riau (Indonesia), Fundación Universidad del Norte Barranquilla (Colombia), University of Sharjah (United Arab Emirates), RUDN University (Russia), University of Campinas (Brazil), Universidad de Sonora (Mexico) and University of Zanjan (Iran). Next year International Workshop of UI GreenMetric will be conducted in Universiti Putra Malaysia.
